Premium-quality Flooring

Laminate flooring allows you to enjoy the vitality of a wood-like floor without the actual use of any solid wood in its construction, allowing it to be more environment-friendly. It is made up of 4 primary layers bonded together under high pressure. During the manufacturing process, a moisture-resistant layer under a layer of HDF (high density fiberboard) ensures better life of the products. This, in turn, is topped with a high resolution photographic image of natural wood flooring, and finally finished with an extremely hard, clear coating made from special resin-coated cellulose to protect the laminated floors.

Exclusively Engineered

Engineered wood floors represent all the traditional aesthetics of solid hardwood, with an innovation in design that makes it even more versatile! Comprising several layers, with the top layer being a species of real hardwood, engineered hardwood flooring is a robust option that allows you to install your chosen colour, cut, finish and surface texture in areas where solid hardwood is not recommended.

High Quality And Exquisite Design

Vista's flooring range has the look and feel of real hardwood, with the added durability of a laminate floor. Its authentic wood grain texture gives you a luxurious, rustic look without the hassle of a typical hardwood floor installation. So, why wait? Refresh your entire space with a modern floor that's designed to last for eternity.

Easy to Install

With a snap and lock feature, Vista's hardwood-resembling floors are extremely easy to install. You can simply lock planks together by inserting and folding down each one. No glue or nails required! You won't even have to live in limbo or spend days waiting for your floors to be ready. These laminate floors come together three times faster than traditional hardwood floors thanks to the advanced snap-lock installation system. With pre-attached foam backers, you'll spend less time trying to get things to line up just right.

Reflects Nature

Reflecting the charm of timeworn hardwood, Vista's premium-quality laminate flooring comes with authentic wood looks, superior design, advanced technology, and high finish. Each design is a unique interpretation of the reclaimed wood trend, with stylish colours, and surface treatments that mimic hardwood. Further featuring striking textures so clear and realistic looking, the appearance could easily be mistaken for a reclaimed hardwood.
